PAINTERS WANT SANITARY BILL

Convention Delegates to Draft Bill for Legislature on Wall Paper; Conference Adjourned

NEW OFFICERS ARE ELECTED

Board of Trustees and National Delegates Selected; Picnic at Pettibone Park

The following officers were elected at the morning session of the Painters' convention: National delegates: B. Mautz of Madison; Charles York, of Burlington. Executive Board: Frank Augsky, Lake Geneva; Zeno Paque, Green Bay; William Nelson, Madison; and Joseph Kopan, Prairie du Chien. Member of the executive board of the international board: F. W. Dupke, Beloit.

With the passing of the resolution to the effect that a bill on sanitary conditions in regard to the painting trade, be drafted and introduced at the next session of the legislature and that the matter be brought to the attention of the State Health Commission, the seventh annual convention of the Master House Painters and Decorators of the State of Wisconsin, was brought to a close this morning.

Much discussion on the lack of sanitary conditions in regard to the repapering of walls was carried on by the delegates who strongly urged that measures be taken to safeguard the public in this respect.

In a large majority of cases when a room is repapered, the old paper is left on the wall and the new is covered over, according to Mr. James B. Murphy, Watertown, who introduced the resolution. This gives the rooms a beautiful appearance, but the germs and dirt which are on the old paper remain and within a short time, often cause diseases.

Mr. Murphy recommends that a bill be passed requiring the removal of the old paper before the new be placed upon the wall, thus protecting the people. In all of the larger cities of Wisconsin there are ordinances to this effect, but the smaller cities and towns have no such protection and the new law would be a great benefit to them.

The morning session was adjourned at 12:30. This afternoon the delegates and friends are holding a picnic at Pettibone park following which the visiting delegates will leave for their homes.

WOMAN HELD FOR HUSBAND'S MURDER

PITTSFIELD, Ill., Aug. 3.—Mrs. Minnie Pate of Greggsville, Ill., is held in the county jail here pending an investigation of the death of her husband, Leonard Pate, five weeks ago, and the illness of her 9 year old son, who, the physicians assert, exhibits every symptom of having been poisoned.

It was at first thought that Pate's death was due to being poisoned while spraying an insect destroyer on fruit trees, but later it was declared he died of ptomaine poisoning. The police have discovered no motive for the alleged crime.

The old man was uninjured.

CRYSTAL FALLS, Mich., Aug. 3.—Searchers are this afternoon dragging the river in an effort to locate the bodies of four persons drowned as the result of the capsizing of a launch owned by John Holmes. The body of Mrs. Victor Mattson, a fifth victim, has been recovered.

The ill-fated launch contained seven people, including the owner, who had been on a blackberry picking expedition. All were well-known residents of Mansfield. The dead are: Miss Edith Forsman, the daughter of Charles Forsman, shift foreman at Mansfield mine; William Panninen, Mrs. Emilie Panninen, Mrs. Victor Mattson, John Holmes, owner of the launch.

INDICTED BANKER SUICIDE IN CELL

Death in Jail Ends Tragic Career of Once Prosperous Illinois Man

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—Carver Manker, the Pearl, Ill., indicted banker, died early today in the Emergency hospital. He never regained consciousness after the police found him in a pool of blood on the floor of his cell last night. He had thrust a pen knife into his jugular vein.

Before he plunged the knife into his throat Manker had received a number of newspaper men in his cell.

"I am going back to Pearl," he told them, "and I'm going to stick it out. Down in my heart I feel the scorn and calumny but with the knowledge that my acts were never with wrongful intent, I am going back to the old place in Illinois and make my fight. I'm going to start life anew. I know I can rehabilitate my fortune and re-establish myself in the hearts of the people who trusted me once."

Two hours later he inflicted the wounds from which he died.

Three years ago Manker was a prominent and prosperous banker of Pearl, Ill. He was president of the Bank of Pearl. He lost large sums on the various stock exchanges and later confided many thousands of dollars in a man who was to market for him his invention for preventing the robbery of bank vaults. This man, according to Manker, proved unworthy of his trust, and when he saw that he could not make good his shortage, Manker fled.

For three years he wandered through the west, striving to make enough money to pay his debts. Instead he went from bad to worse and finally haunted, always by the fear of arrest, he gave himself up and declared he was willing to go back to Illinois for trial. An officer from Illinois is on his way here for him.

BRYAN KEEPS MUM

MAINTAINS ABSOLUTE SILENCE REGARDING THE SPEECH IN WHICH UNDERWOOD CALLS HIM FALSIFIER

PETOSKEY, Mich., Aug. 3.—William J. Bryan, who today is lecturing in southern Michigan, maintains absolute silence regarding the speech of Representative Underwood (Dem., Ala.), chairman of the democratic ways and means committee, who yesterday charged Bryan with being a falsifier for asserting that Underwood was a protectionist. John M. Hall of Petoskey, who entertained Bryan here yesterday, says the Nebraskan read the newspaper account of Underwood's speech and offered no comment. Neither did he mention the Underwood incident in his address last night.

MAY EXHUME MRS. BEATTIE'S BODY

RICHMOND, Va., Aug. 3.—To substantiate many details of the manner in which they contend Mrs. Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., met her death, as they assert, at the hands of her husband, counsel for the prosecution this afternoon are considering the exhumation of the body of the murdered woman. No detailed autopsy was performed. Mrs. Owen, mother of the murdered woman, will fight any plan to exhume the body of her daughter.

CLUB WOMEN TO AID MURDERESS

Will Flood State of California with Petitions in Behalf of Anna Langley

PARENTS WILL REMAIN LOYAL

Delicate Girl Girl Accused of Shooting Beast of Husband in a Saloon

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—Club women all over the coast today are rallying to the aid of Anna Langley, who shot her husband, James because she had been unable to make a man of him. It is believed no jury would convict the delicate woman who had borne so much, but the club women will stand by her to the end and flood the state with petitions for her pardon in case she is convicted.

Mrs. Langley's mother and father are standing loyally by her and were at her side when the preliminary hearing began today.

Takes Marriage License.

James Langley left home early yesterday. He took his wife's marriage license with him and said he was never going to come back.

Mrs. Langley begged for the marriage license.

"It's only a token, Jim," I told him, "but it's all I've got." "He wouldn't let me have it," she said.

Mrs. Langley went to a pawnbroker's shop and bought a revolver. She asked the clerk who sold it to her if the revolver would "kill a man—or a dog."

She found her husband in a saloon. According to bystanders, he turned on her with a torrent of abuse.

The girl wife shot him dead.

Mrs. Langley was arrested. She could not understand why she was held. Snuggled in the arms of her mother, Mrs. James Gaffney, Mrs. Langley told her story.

Supported Husband.

"I have supported my husband by working as a stenographer ever since our marriage," she said. "I tried to make him stay away from saloons. I endured his abuse. I tried to instill some ambition into him. It was no use and I could not endure no more."

"At the saloon today he asked me to give him $20 or $30 which I had saved up to make a nice home for him."

"Then he said—," her voice faltered, and she turned her face to her mother's breast—"he said that he had no more respect for me than—than the women on the 'row.' Then I saw it was no use. I remembered the times he had staped in bed in the morning and looked at his hands and said: 'These hands weren't made to work. Hurry up and earn something.'"

"I went out and bought the revolver."

"Where did you get the money for it?" asked her mother. "I pawned the watch you gave me," said the girl. "I am sorry, but I just had to do it."

At the preliminary hearing here today Police Judge Deacy refused to set bail for Anna Langley, who killed her husband, although requested to do so by Police Chief White and Police Commissioners Sullivan and McDonald. The judge said he would await the result of the inquest this afternoon. He intimated that at its end he would set a very low bail, which the women of the state will raise if the family cannot do so.

GERMANY'S DEMANDS CALLED EXCESSIVE

PARIS, Aug. 3.—That the report from London that the Franco-German negotiations have proceeded to such an extent that it can be safely asserted the entire Moroccan situation will soon be satisfactorily adjusted, is not true, was semi-officially stated this afternoon. While the negotiations continue, it was said they are far from pleasing because "Germany's demands continue excessive."

TWO DEAD IN WEST VIRGINIA WRECK

CLARKSBURG, W. Va., Aug. 3.—The New York and St. Louis fast passenger train No. 1 on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad was wrecked early yesterday three miles west of Salem, near Long Run, T. W. Dunington, engineer, of Grafton, was instantly killed, and James A. Huber, fireman, of Grafton, received injuries that caused his death. Many passengers were bruised, but not seriously hurt. The cause of the wreck is not known.

VARDAMAN TO BE SENATOR.

JACKSON, Miss., Aug. 3.—James K. Vardaman, former governor, will be the next United States senator from Mississippi. This was assured yesterday when incomplete returns from Tuesday's primaries gave Vardaman 28,000 votes against 16,400 for Senator Leroy Percy and 14,000 for C. H. Alexander, a third aspirant. The primary nomination is equivalent to election.

COMMITTEE OF LEAGUE MEETS

La Follette to Be Endorsed by Progressives in Madison Conference Today

MADISON, Wis., Aug. 3.—The legislative committee of the Wisconsin progressive republican league held a meeting in Governor McGovern's office in the capitol this afternoon, for the purpose of formulating a declaration of principles and planning work for the future. The preamble of principles will probably refer to the progressive legislation enacted in Wisconsin, give Senator La Follette credit for his leadership here and at Washington in the fight for such legislation, and pledge the Wisconsin branch of the league to support only such candidates for public office as will promise to work for progressive legislation.

Senator A. W. Sanborn, Ashland, Wis., president of the Wisconsin league, arrived in the city early and had a conference with Governor McGovern. Senator Sanborn said the committee would probably issue a statement late today.

GREAT LEADER DEAD

EDWARD MURPHY, FORMER NEW YORK U. S. SENATOR WAS POTENT FIGURE IN DEMOCRACY

LONG BRANCH, N. J., Aug. 3.—Edward Murphy, Jr., formerly United States senator from New York and for years a potent factor in the affairs of the up-state democracy in that state, died at his home here today.

Edward Murphy, Jr., was a powerful factor in the affairs of New York state from the time he was elected mayor of Troy in 1875. From then until 1895 he ruled the Rensselaer county democrats with an iron hand and was so uniformly successful in rolling up big majorities for the ticket that he was early made a member of the "inner circle" in the state committee.

He was chosen chairman of the state committee in 1887 and served until 1895. In that position he assisted David Bennett Hill in getting the state delegation away from Grover Cleveland in 1892.

Murphy was chairman of the state delegation to the 1892 national convention. He was elected United States senator in 1893, serving one term. He was born in Troy December 15, 1836, and was a graduate of St. John's college at Fordham, N. Y.

APPORTIONMENT PASSES IN SENATE

Bill Fixes Number of Representatives to Next Congress at 433; Wisconsin Unchanged

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The senate this afternoon adopted without a roll call the house bill fixing the number of representatives in the next congress at 433.

As agreed to, the bill is changed in only two particulars from that passed by the house. Both amendments were by Senator Burton (Rep., Ohio) One provided that candidates for the house might be nominated in the same manner as candidates for governor. The second provided that the redistricting should be done by the legislatures of the states, except in states where the initiative and referendum was in force where such laws might be invoked to secure redistricting.

Under amendment by Root (Rep., N. Y.) to retain the number of representatives at 391, as at present, was defeated, 23 yeas 46 nays. An amendment offered by Gronna (Rep., N. D.) for McCumber (Rep., N. D.) to make the membership 404 was rejected, 22 to 47.

The state whose representation is increased are:

Alabama, 1; California, 3; Colorado, 1; Georgia, 1; Idaho, 1; Illinois, 2; Louisiana, 1; Massachusetts, 2; Michigan, 1; Minnesota, 1; Montana, 1; New Jersey, 2; New York, 6; North Dakota, 1; Ohio, 1; Oklahoma, 3; Oregon, 1; Pennsylvania, 4; Rhode Island, 1; South Dakota, 1; Utah, 1; West Virginia, 1; Texas, 2; Washington, 2.

FREE FOR ALL FIGHT IN PARLIAMENT

BUDAPEST, Aug. 3.—The organized obstruction of the opposition to pending government measures resulted today in violent scenes in the Hungarian parliament. Deputy Pozsgay of the Kossuth party knocked down Deputy Pal of the government's side, with a blow in the face, which was followed by a wild free for all fight on the floor of the chamber. As it was impossible to restore order the house was adjourned. A sabre duel has been arranged between Deputies Pozsgay and Pal.

ESCAPES DEATH BY A MIRACLE

Engineer Richard Gray Has Close Call when Engine Topples Into Ditch

WRECK DUE TO A BLUNDER

New Operator Throws Derail in Front of Train After Signaling to Proceed

Engineer Richard S. Gray, 1725 Kane street, who pilots No. 57, the fast express train on the "Q," had what is considered to be a miraculous escape from either instant death or maiming yesterday morning at 7:45, when through the clumsiness of a new towerman at Oaklands, near St. Paul, the engine and four of the express cars of the train were thrown into the ditch.

There were three La Crosse men on the train, Engineer Gray, Conductor George I. Snell, 1502 Charles street, and Express Messenger Leonard Sagen, 907 Clinton street. None was hurt, with the exception of Mr. Gray, who received a superficial cut on the shin.

Leaps to Safety

It is considered that only remarkable agility saved the life of Gray, as the locomotive toppled over on its right side. He managed to escape by leaping through the open window of the cab as the engine turned, and by a remarkable bound he cleared the falling mass of metal. Had it caught him in his jump, or had he failed to get clear of the cab, he would have been mashed like an insect, say those who saw the wreck.

Conductor Snell, in charge of the train, was in one of the rear express cars when the accident occurred. The jerk of the fall of the engine and the four cars toppled over upon him a pile of wagon wheels, pinning him to the floor of the car. He was unable to extricate himself for several minutes.

Leonard Sagen, the local express messenger, also had a narrow escape, he was working in one of the four express cars which were ditched, and went into the ditch with the car. He was bruised and shaken, but no bones were broken.

Operator to Blame

The accident happened through the awkwardness of J. Wilson, a new operator in the switch tower at Oaklands, it is said. It was his first night on duty, and although the day man had explained everything to him thoroughly, he was unable to grasp the entire system by which the interlocking towers are operated. When No. 57 came along, running at a speed of ten miles an hour, according to orders, Wilson became rattled. He first gave the engineer of the approaching train the signal to go ahead, but as he approached, after "giving him the board," he threw the lever which operated the derail. The engine and four cars went into the open derail and were ditched. That there was no loss of life is due to the fact that the train at the time of the accident was proceeding at a slow rate of speed.

Horried at what he had done, the operator, who thought that lives had been lost by his carelessness, left the tower, and fled at top speed over the adjoining fields. Later, however, he came back, but he quit his job as soon as he saw what damage he had done, and refused to again enter the tower.

WEIDELL NEAR DEATH

LOCAL PITCHER OPERATED UPON FOR APPENDICITIS IS IN CRITICAL CONDITION TODAY

Bugs Weidell, one of the main stars of the pitching staff of the Outcasts, was taken to his home at Red Wing yesterday, where an operation for appendicitis was performed, last night. Weidell is in a critical condition today, suffering from a high fever and although he is in good condition otherwise, it is impossible to say as yet whether or not he will recover.

President Elliott who accompanied Weidell to his home, will try to procure a good twirler to take the place of Weidell but as good pitchers are scarce at this time of the season, it is not likely that he will find a man who can fill Weidell's place.

President John Elliott, when speaking on the carnival which is to be held here next week, said that he had seen the attractions at the Eau Claire carnival and that the company is one of the best he has ever seen.

Head Warden Seeks Evidence That Law Has Been Violated Under Permit

Head Game Warden John A. Sholts, Madison, has directed Deputy Game Warden Edward Gautsch, La Crosse, to "arrest at once and notify this department" any officials or representatives of the United States Fish Commission in any way violating the provisions of the permit by which the federal government is securing bass minnows within the state of Wisconsin.

This action is directed, in fact, against the United States steamer Curlew, and is based upon accusations of individuals in the Mississippi river section to the effect that the steamer is and has for years been violating the law and privileges extended to the department by the state.

Upon request of Warden Gautsch, District Attorney James Thompson recently looked up the law, and decided that the United States commission may have gone beyond its rights and authority. Thereupon Mr. Gautsch wrote the headquarters at Madison, inquiring what the rights of the Curlew were, and what if any steps should be taken. In response he received from Head State Game Warden Sholts the following letter:

HORSE MATINEES PROVE POPULAR

Large Crowd Out to Watch Gentleman's Roadsters Cover Ground at Race Track

Matinees for gentlemen's roadsters is a pastime that in the east and south is popular, but the "bug" has invaded La Crosse and for the last few weeks exhibitions of horse-racing have been given at the Interstate fair grounds race track every Wednesday evening.

Incidentally it is of interest to know that material is being developed for the coming fair races that promises to establish something new in the way of records here.

In a good race last evening, which was viewed by many race fans, "Harry H." owned and driven by August Munstock, Mormon Coulee farmer, paced a mile in 2:32 and followed it up later by covering the circle twice in 2:34.

In the first pace Munstock's "Harry H." won with "Holly Dillon" Louis For's horse, second; "Lady Betty," owned by Charlie Kohn, third, and "Monty," owned by Wiggert, last.

They finished the second race in the same order.

One horse that is being watched with a great deal of interest by local racing men is "Lassie," owned by Harry Gund. The trotter last night showed good form, and while it went in only half mile heats, developed speed that gives the animal the earmarks of a "comer."

M. J. Lyon's "J. M." is another horse of reputation, as is "Go Quick," owned by G. R. Smith. "Go Quick" covered a mile in 2:46 without effort last night.

The track and stand held a good sized aggregation last evening, and Attorney C. L. Hood acted as timer.

Something of a sensation was caused when "Russian," the eighteen-year-old horse of Henry Palmer, pulled a road buggy around the track in a little better than three minutes.

The entire shipping industry and allied trades are involved. Twenty steamships, several of them loaded with perishable freight are already tied up. The dockers expected that the ship owners would yield after a meeting called for tonight. It is their declared intention, if the owners do not yield, to bring out all of the 30,000 men connected with the meat trade.

WISCONSIN NEWS

FREAR IN QUANDRY.

MADISON, Wis., Aug. 3.—Secretary of State Frear has not yet received the request of the elections committee of the United States senate for additional copies of the testimony in the Stephenson election investigation case, and when he does he will have great difficulty in compiling, because he has no more copies of the documents in question, and he does not know where he can get any unless he has them printed. This would take much time and entail a large expense. The testimony makes two large volumes. Only a few hundred copies of the testimony were printed. Even the attorneys of Senator Stephenson had difficulty in getting six copies. The investigation cost the state about $20,000.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—A wireless dispatch from the captain of the steamer Massachusetts, enroute from Boston to this city says that he ran down and sank the schooner Susan Pickering, stone-laden from Stonington, Maine to New London, Conn., in Long Island sound, early today. The Pickering sank in four minutes. Her captain and four of the crew were rescued by the Massachusetts.

ASTOR PARALYZES THE UPPER CRUST

Announcement of Engagement to 18-Year-Old Girl Is Blow to High Society

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—The more exclusive members of New York society, especially the matrons with daughters of marriageable age, are using smelling salts and other restoratives in great profusion today to bring their nerves back to their accustomed state. The news that Col. John Jacob Astor, multi-millionaire and the biggest "catch of the season," had been hooked by an eighteen-year-old girl, whose family was not in the "select 100" picked by the bride-groom-to-be's mother as representing "true American society," has simply paralyzed them.

Meanwhile friends of Colonel Astor are not particularly surprised. He always had an eye for beauty and in his new wife he will have one of the most beautiful American girls. Despite her youth, Miss Madeleine Force is wonderfully developed, with clear, strong features and a wealth of brown hair, a striking figure in any company. She "came out" last winter, but cut little figure in society, which has been disposed not to patronize the Force family, until Colonel Astor started paying her marked attentions. Then the society leaders who have been members of the "inner shrine" tried to patronize Miss Madeleine, but with small success, as she has a will of her own.

It is understood that the wedding will take place early in the fall and that immediately afterward the couple will start on a round the world wedding trip. It was intimated today that Colonel Astor's former wife, Mrs. Ava Willing Astor, who divorced him, will now demand complete possession of their children. Vincent Astor has spent most of his time with his father since the divorce and should Mrs. Willing, as she is now known, try to have him remain with her a lively legal fight would follow. None of the members of the Astor family would discuss this rumor today.

DR. A. U. JORRIS HOLDS REUNION

Dr. A. U. Jorris, 1831 Cass street, is today entertaining seven of his brothers, and several other relatives, in a family reunion. It has been nearly twenty years, it is said, since some of the brothers who are participating in the reunion, saw each other.

A round robin was sent to two sisters in Olney, Ill., and Brazil, Ind., who are ill, and it is expected that they will be able to join the reunion before its end.

In addition to the families of the brothers, the Salzer family and that of George H. Merman and William R. Ellers, whose parents were members of the Jorris family, will also participate in the reunion. Today was spent at Fernside, the Salzer cottage at Eagle Bluff. Tomorrow the party leaves for Spring Valley, Minn., where they will stay a day, leaving for Lake Minnetonka the next week. The balance of the two weeks scheduled as the duration of the reunion will be spent at Lake Minnetonka.

Following are the names of those at present in La Crosse who are taking part in the reunion.

HOPPERS DAMAGE WISCONSIN FIELDS

MADISON, Wis., Aug. 3.—Much damage is being done to many fields in Wisconsin by grasshoppers, some sections having been "plague swept" by swarms of the pests. Burnett county has been especially hard hit, and some counties in the more central portions of the state have not escaped.

In some places the grain harvest has been pushed forward a week ahead to prevent great losses from the ravages of these crop destroyers.

Professor J. G. Sanders of the state agricultural college advises the practice of thoroughly disking and harrowing the surface of the fields to destroy a large part of the eggs which the grasshoppers deposit just beneath the surface of the ground. Plowing the fields and thereby turning these eggs to a depth of six to eight inches will bury them so deeply that the hatching larvae cannot reach the surface.

POSTAL BANK IS POPULAR. CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—When Uncle Sam's new Chicago savings bank opened for business yesterday there were 461 accounts on the books, with deposits of $9,421. These figures established a record for the savings banks operated by the government. New York's bank showed only 172 depositors with $3,775. There was a rush of depositors when the bank opened yesterday. Fifty-five men deposited $100, the limit allowed each month.

PRESIDENT SIMON READY FOR FLIGHT

PORT AU PRINCE, Hayti, Aug. 3.—Bringing with them promises that the city will not be sacked, the diplomatic corps returned today from conferences with the revolutionary leaders whose forces closely invest the capital.

President Antoine Simon was granted three days in which to resign. His declaration that "My word will be taken only from my dead body" has resolved itself into preparations for flight. Simon's departure is being strongly urged by the foreign ministers.

Several revolutionary sympathizers, who shouted their allegiance to the revolution when a report was in circulation that Simon had fled, were captured and executed.

The American cruiser Des Moines and the British cruiser "Melpomene" made preparations to land marines at a moment's notice. The German cruiser Bremen was due today.

BANISH THOSE GRAY HAIRS!

Kill the Dandruff Germs—Stop Hair Falling

Thousands of mothers are looking younger.—Their gray hairs are gone. The natural color has come back, and with it a new growth of soft, glossy, luxuriant hair. Why should you look old before your time, when you can look years younger by using

WYETH'S SAGE AND SULPHUR HAIR REMEDY

Dandruff Cured

Three applications removed all the dandruff and left my scalp clean, white and smooth. Wm. Croak, Rochester, N. Y.

It Is Positively Guaranteed to Restore Faded and Gray Hair to Natural Color

If other "so-called" Restorers have failed, don't give up hope, but give WYETH'S SAGE AND SULPHUR HAIR REMEDY a trial. You run no risk. If it is not, exactly as represented, your money will be refunded.

PROFIT BY OTHERS' EXPERIENCE

Gray Hair Restored

My hair was getting quite gray and falling out rapidly, and I was troubled with a terrible itching of the scalp. My head was continually itching, which fell upon my clothes and kept me continually brushing it off. While on a visit to Rochester I heard of your Sage and Sulphur for the hair. I got a bottle and used it. A few applications relieved the itching, my hair stopped falling out and gradually came back to its natural color. It is now a nice dark brown color, soft, glossy and pliable. Several of my friends want to use it, and I want to know what you will charge me for six bottles of it.

MISS A. A. ROSS,
Sharon, Mezer Co., Pa.

Grew Hair on a Bald Head

For two or three years my hair had been falling out and getting quite thin until the top of my head was entirely bald. About four months ago I commenced using Sage and Sulphur. The first bottle seemed to do some good and I kept using it regularly until now I have used four bottles. The whole top of my head is fairly covered and keeps coming in thicker. I shall keep on using it a while longer, as I notice a constant improvement.

OUR INCOME TAX.
The Davenport Democrat thinks our income tax is inconsistent because it exempts holders of state and government jobs. It says:
"Wisconsin's new graduated state tax on incomes begins by discriminating. The law does not apply to officials of the United States, or to members of the state government. If a salary of $2,000 a year is an income when received from a college or from a business how does it become any less so when paid by the government or by state? The man or woman who receives $800 a year is required to pay $8 or 1 per cent. If the income is above $12,000 the tax is six times as much on each $100."

An Illinois legislator insists he accepted bribe money inspired by high motives. High finance motives, likely.

A Challenge
HE
I know the dearest, sweetest place,
A place near which I love to stay;
Its grace no artist's brush could trace,
No dreaming poet's pen portray.
SHE
And is the place of which you speak
Deep in some woodland's grateful shade,
Or on some lofty mountain's peak
Where nature's wonders are displayed?
Nay, it is in no shaded glen,
Nor hidden by eternal snows;
I gaze upon its beauties when My glance rests just beneath your nose.
SHE
Your riddle may be guessed with ease,
I fear you praise me overmuch;
However, gaze away, but please Remember that you mustn't touch.
—S. E. Kiser in the Chicago Record-Herald.

Proved It Himself
An electric wire had fallen under its heavy weight of snow. The line-men found a crowd around the grounded copper, and an inquisitive Irishman lifting one end from the ground.
"Man alive! Don't you know what a risk you're taking? That might be a live wire!" he ejaculated.
"Sure 'n' Oi thought of that myself, an' Oi filt of the wire good before Oi picked it up at all."—Everybody's Magazine.

A Real Compliment
"Mr. Fittle," says the evidently angry lady, "I understood that you said last night that I looked like a dummy! What do you mean by such a remark?"
"I did say it, my dear Miss Deluxe. I did say it. Wait a minute! I said that you were as beautiful as one of the wax figures in a millinery window."
"Oh-h-h! I'm sorry I misunderstood your meaning."—Chicago Post.

No Fear
At a well known club in New York the other day one of those bores who are the bane of all clubs drew his chair up to Robert W. Chambers's and genially:
"Chambers, you are writing at the rate of two and sometimes three novels every year, to say nothing of your annual sheaf of short stories. Aren't you afraid that a time will come when you will have written yourself out?"
"My dear sir," Mr. Chambers replied, "I have no such fear. Just look at your own case. You have been talking for more than sixty years and yet you haven't talked yourself out, have you?"—Washington Star.

DIRECT FROM PARIS RACE TRACK

The Tribune is fortunate in having secured the above reproduced pictures of Paris fashions as they are worn at the race track this summer. They show many fads and fancies in dress and millinery. The fancy hand bags and parasols are carried universally. The hat styles vary from the broad brimmed low pattern to the smaller type, attractively trimmed.

POLICE HUNT DEAD WOMAN'S PARTNER
ST. LOUIS, Aug. 3.—With the return to St. Louis of Max Judell, a traveling salesman for a tobacco house, it was expected yesterday the police would be given a clue leading to the identity of a young man who was with Judell's wife before she fell or was thrown from a hotel window and killed. Judell was advised at Kewanee, Ill., of the tragic end of his wife, who late Monday night entered the Vendome hotel with the man registering "R. Pappas" with his wife. Judell will arrive here today.
The entire detective force is searching for Mrs. Judell's escort. An important witness in the inquest will be Tillie Mitchell, who lives directly across the street from a rear corner of the Vendome hotel. She saw Mrs. Judell lying prostrate in the alley below an open third floor window. The light was then burning in the room. The Mitchell woman told the police she saw a man depart from the hotel, through a side entrance, an walk rapidly to the rear of the hotel. When he saw Mrs. Judell he fled down the street.

CALLS GOVERNMENT OF BRAZIL A TRUST
WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The so-called coffee trust, according to Attorney General Wickersham, is nothing more or less than the Brazilian government which has cornered coffee and entered into an agreement to sell only to certain parties. The attorney general said today that it was difficult to prosecute the trust because of its immediate connection with the South American republic, but he asserted that the department of justice was trying to find some legal loop hole whereby this peculiar situation may be relieved and the price of coffee reduced.

CONNECTICUT GRANGE TAKES RAP AT TAFT
HARTFORD, Conn., Aug. 3.—The announcement that President Taft would visit the Connecticut fair in September led the officers of the state grange, strong opponents of Canadian reciprocity, to call off Grange day, long a popular institution at the annual exhibit.
Today the managers of the fair stated that they did not care whether the farmers patronized the exposition or not.
Predictions were made both that the president would call off his visit and that the membership of the grange would repudiate their officers' stand.

REBELS READY TO DRIVE OUT SIMON
PORT AU PRINCE, Hayti, Aug. 3.—With a committee of safety temporarily in charge of the city, following the forced abdication late yesterday of President Antoine Simon, and the guns of the American cruiser Des Moines and the British war ship Melpomene frowning upon any attempt to destroy life and property, Port au Prince passed an uneasy night. There was wide-spread confusion and excitement.
On the warships a strong detachment of blue jackets were under arms all night. It was believed that the revolutionary forces would march into the capital before tonight.

BANDITS ESCAPE IN TAXI
NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Two men, who the police believe are the same who robbed Jacob Jacoby's store on Sixth avenue a week ago Saturday night, when they stole a tray of diamonds and killed a clerk, performed another trick in Brooklyn this afternoon. That they did not kill the proprietor of the Brooklyn store was due to the fact that the cart-ridges jammed in an automatic pistol and failed to explode. The pair grabbed a bunch of rings and escaped in their taxicab.

On Second Washing.
"I've just washed out a suit for my little boy—and now it seems too tight for him."
"He'll fit it all right, if you wash the boy."—Meggendorfer Blatter.

The Colonel and the Cards.
Col. Cecil Lyon, the republican national committeeman from Texas, was induced one night to sit in a poker game in New York, says the Popular Magazine. The play had been in progress about an hour when a newcomer, rather the worse for strong drink, bought a stack of chips.

On the next hand dealt the colonel held three aces "pat." The newcomer drew three cards and the colonel said, in a nonchalant, bored manner, he guessed he would take one. Then the betting began and grew fiercer and fiercer. Every time the colonel raised the stranger raised him back again. Finally Lyon called.
The other man spread out an ace high straight. He had held the king and ace and drawn the ten, jack and queen.
The colonel, looking like a man at the funeral of a dear relative, remarked in shrill tones:
"Down in my state when a man draws cards like that somebody else draws a gun."
Bob Burdette's Aside.
When Bob Burdette was addressing the graduating class of a large eastern college for women, he began his remarks with the usual salutation, "Young ladies of '97." Then in a horrified aside he added, "That's an awful age for a girl!"—Lippincott's.

An American Novel.
BY EMERSON HOUGH
Author of "34-40 or FIGHT", "THE MISSISSIPPI DUBBLE, ETC."
Copyright, 1910, The Bobbs-Merrill Company

The plantation itself was a little kingdom, and largely supplied its own wants. Mills, looms, shops—all these were part of the careless system, easy and opulent, which found support and gained arrogance from a rich and generous environment. The old house itself, if it might be called old, built as it had been scarce thirty years before, lay in the center of a singular valley, at the edge of the Ozark Hills. The lands here were not so rich as the wide acres thirty miles or more below, where on the fat bottom soil, black and deep, the negroes raised in abundance the wealth-making crop of the country. On the contrary, this, although it was the capital of the vast Dunwoody holdings thereabout, was chosen not for its agricultural richness so much as for its healthfulness and natural beauty.
In regard to these matters, the site could not better have been selected. The valley, some three or four miles across, lay like a deep saucer pressed down into the crest of the last rise of the Ozarks. The sides of the depression were as regular as though created by the hands of man. Into its upper extremity there ran a little stream of clear and unfailing water, which made its entrance at an angle, so that the rim of the hills seemed scarcely nicked by its ingress. This stream crossed the floor of the valley, serving to water the farms, and making its way out of the lower end by a similar curious angle, broke off sharply and hid itself among the rocks on its way out and down from the mountains—last trace of a giant geology which once dealt in continental terms, rivers once seas, valleys a thousand miles in length. Thus, at first sight, one set down in the valley might have felt that it had neither inlet nor outlet, but had been created, nanopopled and peopled by some Titanic power, and owned by those who neither knew nor desired any other world. As a matter of fact, the road up through the lower Ozarks from the great Mississippi, which entered along the bed of the little stream, ended at Tallwoods farm. Beyond it, along the little river which led back into the remote hills, it was no more than a horse path, and used rarely except by negroes or whites in hunting expeditions back into the mountains, where the deer, the wild turkey, the bear and the panther still roamed in considerable numbers at no great distance from the home plantation.
Tallwoods itself needed no other fence than the vast wall of hills, and had none save where here and there the native stone had been heaped up roughly into walls, along some orchard side. The fruits of the apple, the pear and the peach grew here handsomely, and the original owner had planted such trees in abundance. The soil, though at first it might have been called inhospitable, showed itself productive. The corn stood tall and strong, and here and there the brown stalks of the cotton plant itself might have been seen; proof of the wish of the average Southerner to cultivate that plant, even in an environment not wholly suitable. All about, upon the mountain sides, stood a heavy growth of deciduous trees, at this time of the year lining the slopes in flaming reds and golds. Beyond the valley's rim, tier on tier, stately and enough as it was. So it stood as he had left it, with its two tall chimneys, one at each end of the mid-body of the house, marking the two great fireplaces, yet another chimney at the other end of the lesser wing.

Straight through the mid-body of the house ran a wide hall, usually left open to all the airs of heaven; and through this one could see far out over the approach, entirely through the house itself, and note the framed picture beyond of woods glowing with foliage, and masses of shrubbery, and lesser trees among which lay the white butts of the negroes. Still to the left, beyond the existing wing, lay the fenced vegetable gardens where grew rankly all manner of provender intended for the bounteous table, whose host it was that, save for sugar and coffee, nothing was used at Tallwoods which was not grown upon its grounds.

CURIOUS BITS OF HISTORY
By A. W. Macy.
A NOSE TAX.
In the ninth century, when the Danes were managing things in Ireland, much to the disgust of the natives, they imposed a yearly tax of one ounce of gold on each Irish householder, the non-payment of which was to be punished by having the nose slit. Irishmen have never been noted for wealth, and gold is almost as scarce as snakes in the Emerald Isle. Consequently the tax was a great burden, and the majority of householders were unable to pay it. The delinquent tax list soon became something formidable, and it seemed as though Ireland would soon become a nation of slit-noses. The people stood it for thirteen years, and then rose in their wrath and massacred many of their oppressors. The others took the hint and the odious law was repealed.

FRECKLES GONE
"Simple Remedy From O. T. Erhart Removed Them," Says Society Lady.
"The best skin specialist told me that nothing would remove my freckles and that I would carry them to my grave," said a well known society woman, "but I fooled them all with a new drug, othine—double strength, that I bought at O. T. Erhart's, which cleared my skin and gave me a fine complexion."
The action of othine is really remarkable, for when applied at night, many of the freckles disappear entirely by morning, and the rest have begun to fade. An ounce is usually all that is needed, even for the worst case.
Be sure to ask O. T. Erhart for the double strength othine, as this is sold under a guarantee of money back if it fails to remove the freckles.

UPTON SINCLAIR IS PEEVED OVER ARREST

ARDEN, Del., Aug. 3.—"I've had enough and now I am going to give some others a taste of it," declared Belligerent Upton Sinclair, in his home here today. He is still angry over his incarceration in the Wilmington jail, where, after inspecting the various breeds of insects peculiar to institutions of that character he and his associates, violators of the Sunday law, were given two complimentary shower baths, garbed in prison stripes and compelled to "make little ones out of big ones."

"The first to feel the weight of this ridiculous law will be the distinguished lawyers and judges, members of the various country clubs in the state, who play golf on Sunday," he continued. "Myself and friends plan to engage lawyers to get the evidence and we will push the prosecutions until this law is repealed."

The residents of Arden will hold a mass meeting tonight to plan the crusade against the blue laws and to adopt regulations to prevent future troubles.

MANY FORGERIES CHARGED TO FUNK

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Aug. 3.—Charged with having perpetrated bank forgeries in fifteen different cities since his recent release from the Columbus, Ohio, penitentiary, Edward Funk, with an elaborate string of aliases, is under arrest here today by Pinkerton detectives. Funk is declared to have netted himself thousands of dollars by forgeries in Cleveland, Boston, Providence, Brooklyn, Norfolk, Virginia, Pittsburg, Dayton, Toledo, Detroit, Indianapolis, Milwaukee, St. Paul, Omaha, Minneapolis and Kansas City. His particular method was to rent an office, represent himself as the agent of some big manufacturing concern and then get recommended to a leading bank on which he would cash a forged check. Among the aliases alleged to have been used by Funk in the above cities were those of "Edward Stillings," "Edward Sawyer," "James Murphy," "Edward Welch," "E. A. Benton" and "J. E. Morton."

ROAD TO EXTEND LINE

MADISON, Wis., Aug. 3.—The Wisconsin & Northern Railroad company today asked the Wisconsin Railroad Commission for authority to extend its line from Shawano to Menasha, distance of fifty miles, and from Phlox to Antigo, a distance of ten miles. The present line touches lumber and pulp wood district and the company wants to reach the paper mills in the Fox River valley. No one appeared before the state railroad commission in opposition to the request, but Attorney Westphal, Appleton, asked that the proposed route in that city be slightly changed.

MAY BE DAKOTA TRAIN ROBBERS

Montana Officials Working on Theory Harlem Bank Bandits Held Up the Northern Pacific

HARLEM, Mont., Aug. 3.—A scar made by a bullet in the right shoulder which was not yet healed, has given rise to the belief by local officers that the bandit who was killed Monday by Marshal J. Q. Laswell, while he was trying to escape from the vault of the First National bank here with a shot pouch in which he had all the available cash in the bank, was one of the men who held up and robbed the Northern Pacific train near Buffalo, N. D., a few days ago. The scar is almost healed and has every evidence of having been made by a bullet. One of the train robbers, it is believed, was shot by a conductor on the train.

The posse which started after the bandits soon after the attempt to loot the bank, have all returned from their search, except the one organized at Dodson and led by Deputy Neibauer, who, with Constable Roberts and others from Zortman, is leading a large body of men heavily armed in the search.

Sheriff Bickle of Havre and the men under him, one of the posses from this place and one from Chinook, have returned and the officers say they have no great hope the escaping pair of bandits will be captured.

The search has been well directed all the way between here and the Bear Paw mountains, and so far not a single trace that is worth giving serious consideration has been developed.

Coolness and Comfort for a Summer Day

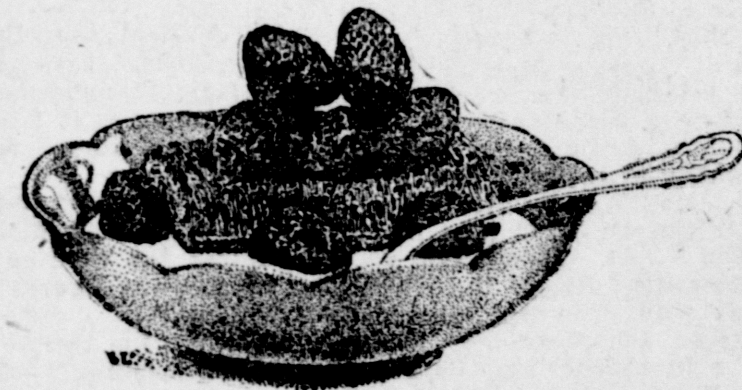

Don't make a fire in the kitchen. A hot kitchen means a hot house and a hot temper. It doesn't promote domestic happiness nor does it encourage sweetness of disposition. Here's freedom from kitchen worry and work: Have a deep dish for each member of the family; place in each dish two

SHREDDED WHEAT BISCUIT

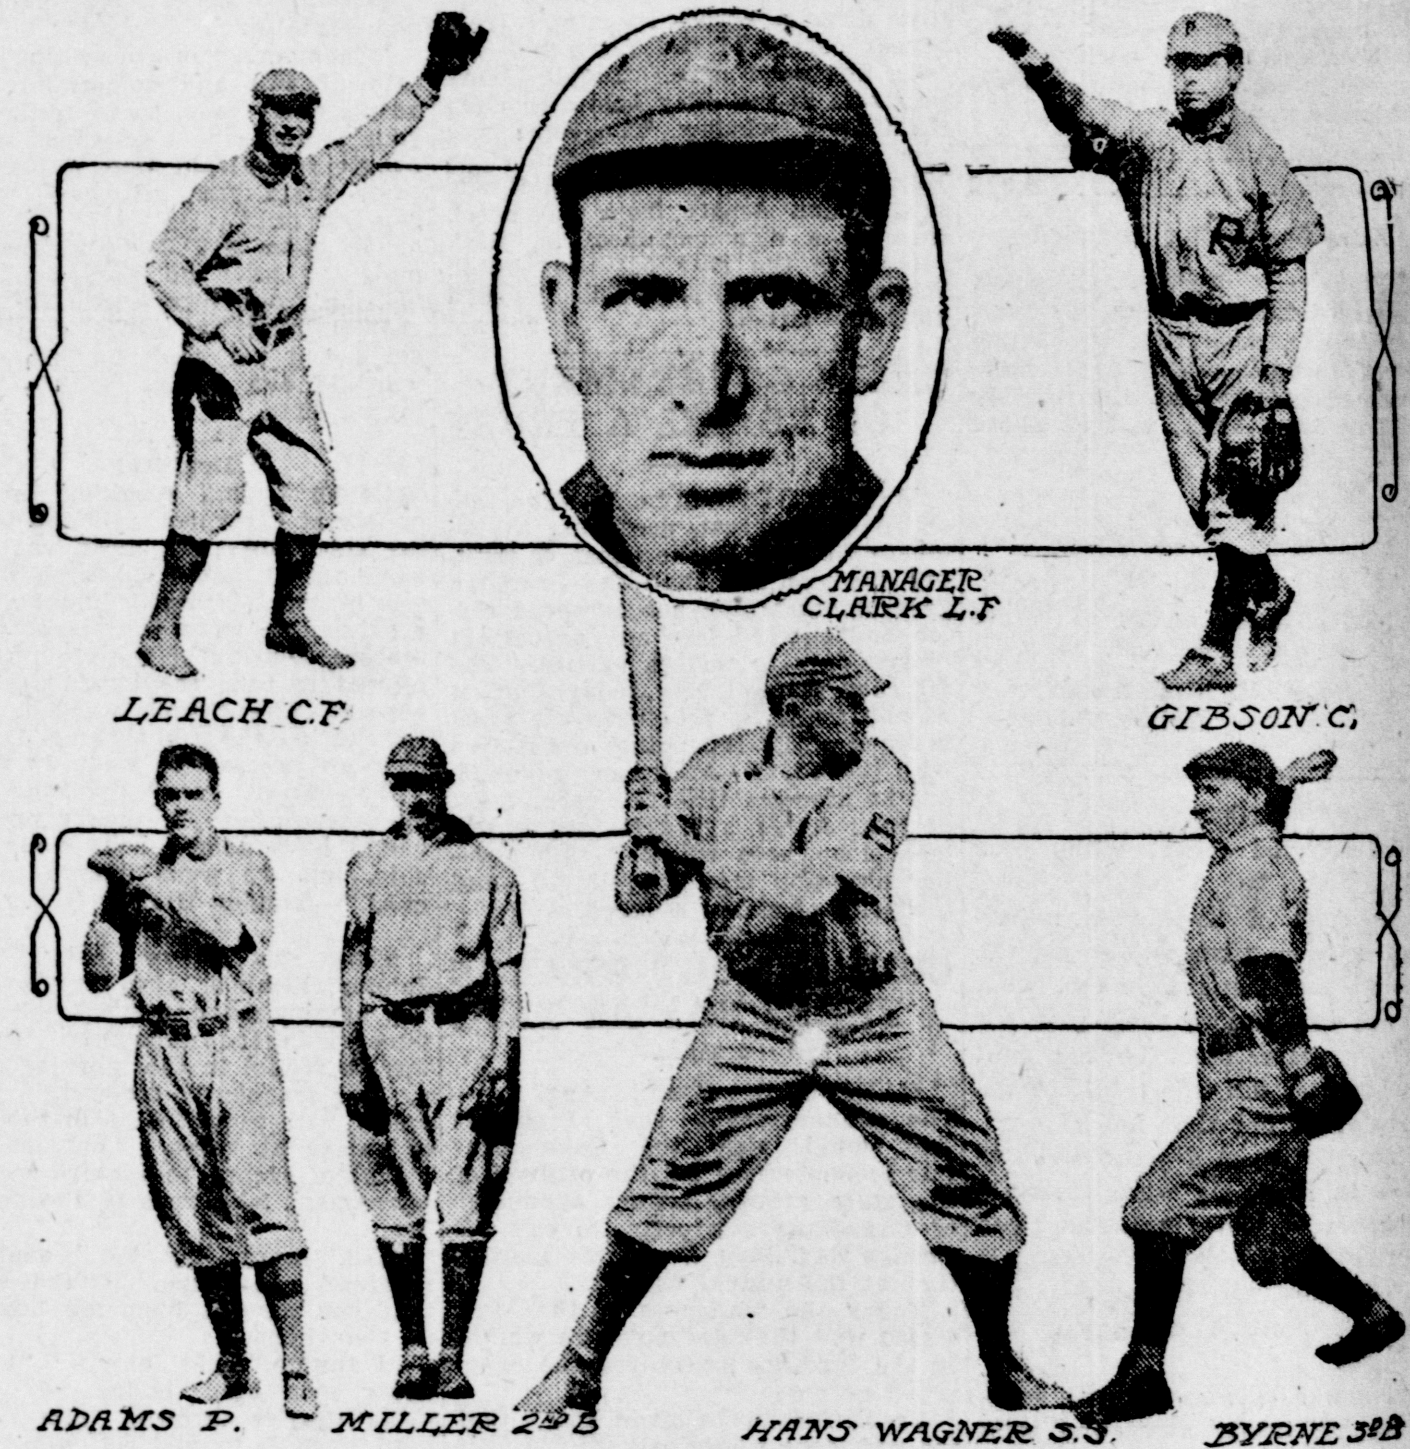

(whole or crushed) and cover with berries of any kind—raspberries, blackberries, huckleberries or other fresh fruit, then pour over them milk, adding a little cream and sugar to suit the taste.

You will find it deliciously appetizing and nourishing, supplying all the strength needed for work or play. Shredded Wheat is ready-cooked and ready-to-serve. It is the whole wheat steam-cooked, shredded and baked—nothing added, nothing taken away. A food for the Summer days when the stomach is tired of heavy meats and soggy pastries.

BATTLING THE CUBS OUT OF FIRST PLACE

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 3.—The series of eight games between the Pirates and the Cubs scheduled here this week and part of next, will do much in determining the position of the Cubs in the percentage column. New York is sitting peacably by, trusting that the Pirates will do the trick and advance them to first place. Manager Clarke has switched Wagner to first base and in this position the "Dutchman" is showing up in good form. It is thought that this shift will strengthen the team materially.

Gillie, living in the town of Thompson, northwest of this village, had a narrow escape from being killed by a stallion. While he was leading the animal to pasture the horse became unmanageable, seizing the boy in his mouth and tossing him in the air, then trampling on him.

George Foss, who happened to be going by, rushed to young Gillie's assistance, and with a club drove the horse away, but not before the boy had been badly injured about his body and head.

The lad is the son of John Gillie of Thompson township.

LIGHTNING KILLS TWO

ROCKWELL CITY, Iowa, Aug. 3.—While standing on top of a load of oats, loading from the shock, Roy Fowle, aged twenty years, was struck by lightning and instantly killed. The bolt struck him on the head and went through his body, burning his clothing almost entirely off.

JEFFERSON, Iowa, Aug. 3.—Martin Foley, employed on the farm of George Anderson, near Churdan, was killed by lightning last evening. His home was in Minnesota.

WAR ON SHORT MEASURES

DES MOINES, Iowa, Aug. 3.—

A statewide crusade against short measures was announced on Tuesday by W. B. Barney, state dairy and food commissioner, following a conference with Attorney General Geo. Cosson. The last legislature made it the duty of the commissioner to enforce the weights and measures law.

The first step of the commissioner will be to instruct the department inspectors to make an immediate test of measures and scales in all food handling shops.

Housewives and "ultimate consumers" all over the state will be advised to purchase scales and see that hereafter potatoes, apples and the like are purchased by weight instead of by measure.

TORRENTIAL RAINS WASH OUT TRACKS

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 3.—Torrential rains of last night in the northern part of Kansas and southern Nebraska, inundating the tracks and washing out the road bed in several places, have blocked traffic on the Rock Island's main line between Chicago and Denver and the Burlington's line from Kansas City to Oxford Junction, Neb. All trains on these lines today are detouring at Lincoln. The Rock Island's damage is heaviest between Bellaire and Phillipsburg, Kas., where a mile track is reported out of commission, and the blockade may continue for several days.

NEARLY BURNED MONEY

SIoux FALLS, S. D., Aug. 3.—The agent at Willow Lake for the Great Northern Railroad company, not being provided with a safe, this summer converted a kitchen range into a safe and stored there checks, drafts, currency and coin belonging to the railway company. His wife arose ahead of him this morning, and not knowing that the stove was being used for a safe, started a fire to heat a chill off the room. The agent heard flames in the chimney and quick work he managed to get everything but one $1,000 check was burned.

WOMAN SMOKER LIVED LONG

Mary Frith, Highway Robber, the First of Her Sex to Use Tobacco in England.

Mary Frith, better known as Moll
Cutpurse, was a notable figure in old London life. She had the reputation of being the first woman to smoke tobacco in England.

The length of her days is a disputed point, but it seems certain that she attained the age of over three score years and ten. It is asserted that constant smoking prolonged her life. A portrait representing her in the act of smoking forms the frontispiece of Middleton's comedy of the "Roaring Girl." She also figures in other plays of the period.

Mary was the daughter of a shoemaker living in the Barbican, and Malone gives 1584 as the date of her birth. She early took to wicked ways and became a noted "highwayman."
Among her familiar friends were the notorious Capt. Hind and Richard Hannam. She was an expert sword-woman. Single-handed she robbed on Hounslow Heath. Gen. Fairfax of 200 gold Jacobuses, shooting him through the arm and killing two of his horses on which his servants were riding.
For the offense she was committed to Newgate, but on paying the general
£2,000 she obtained her liberty.

At one time Mary had £3,000 of her own, but by giving money to distressed cavaliers she died comparatively poor. Her death took place in July, 1659, and she was laid to rest in St. Bridget's.

and in the effort to dislodge the little animal the hunters discovered the treasure.

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—Several La Crosse people attended a unique entertainment given to the Mari-nello summer class in Chicago by Emily Lloyd (Mrs. A. A. Maurer)
on Friday, July 28.

The banquet was held in the St.
Francis room of the Congress hotel. The table was beautifully decorated by sprays of gladioli, ferns and stephanotis running through the center, while two immense bunches of American Beauty roses were placed at each end of the room.

Miniature elephants with "Mari-nello 1911" were given as souvenirs, and a huge elephant made of sweet peas and ferns occupied a conspicuous place.

With the exception of the out of town guests, every person present was a Marinello representative, every state in the union being represented, while delegates were also

AT THE MOTION PICTURE THEATRES

The Dubuque Motor Boat Races at The Majestic.

The Dubuque Motor Boat Races
at the Majestic show everything of importance that happened at Dubuque. It shows the harbor, the race in the rain storm, which is a thing of rare beauty, and the finish of the big race, which was won by the Disturbance II. Among the many other things shown are the following:
The government boat Louise with Capt. Wilcox at the wheel the Dubuque boat, with the float of six young ladies all dressed in white, which captured the first prize in the motor boat parade; the Singer-Bell boat, the Fowler boat of La Crosse, which landed the fifth prize; Com.
Toeller's boat, Com. Eade's boat, which took second prize; the Geck,
the Rose Bier boat of La Crosse, which captured third prize. Also shows the Disturbance II in distress;
also as the winner. The long narrow Hoosier Boy, the Scamp II, the Pronto, which won all three races on the opening day. As it shows these boats going at full speed, it looks as though the boats were standing on end. It shows the Leading Lady running at full speed and then stopping, having trouble with her engine. This boat was newly built and rushed to the river without giving the engine a trial, which accounted for its trouble. You also see the Cornet III, the red top, the freak boat of Dubuque with the French engine. Also shows the Borum Jeric, of La Crosse, with Mr. Thompson, Mr. Berth of La Crosse, Capt. Edwards and Com.
Seabright, some of the race officials.
It gives a good view of the boat works, the large car ferry, B. F.
Yeakem, which has waited at Dubuque for two years, waiting for high water so as to proceed on its way down to the gulf for the Frisco railroad. There is also shown a panoramic view of the La Crosse camp as it was called. Again showing many La Crosse boats. On the whole it is very interesting and will be shown today for the last time at the Majestic.

ATTEMPT TO FLY OVER PIKE'S PEAK

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., 3.—Aviation experts are willing to bet $100 to $1 that Pike's Peak will not be conquered today by Aviator Phil Parmalee. So treacherous are the air currents even around the base of the mountain that in one of his flights yesterday Parmalee was carried a mile out of his course in an attempt to alight. At another time he encountered a "hole in the air" and made a sheer drop,
only saving himself by standing up and balancing his machine. Both Parmalee and Turpin are still game, however, and say they will fly over the foothills today and if the feat is not impossible, may try the Pike's Peak flight.

METHOD OF INDUCING SLEEP

Self-Suggestion Plays a Great Part—Worry is the Main Thing to Be Avoided.

The next point to bear in mind is that self-suggestion plays a great part in the production of sleep, writes Dr.
S. McComb in Harper's Bazar. Ordinarily we do not sleep by accident or haphazard. We resolve to sleep. We go through a variety of actions all suggestive of a change from our normal waking condition. We undress, we place ourselves in a comfortable position, we close our eyes. We believe and expect that we are going to sleep, and the result is—sleep. One of the great preventatives of sleep is the fear of not sleeping. Once this fear is broken down, we sleep. The insomniac worries about his insomnia,
and this very worry deepens the mischief. Hence the sufferer should suggest to himself again and again: "If I sleep, well; if I don't sleep I will at least gain rest by keeping my mind calm and my body relaxed." In a word, our chances of getting sleep increase if we assume the external physical attitude which corresponds to sleep, if we relax every muscle and let it stay relaxed, if we breathe lightly and regularly, if we call up the imaginations of a sleeping person, and talk and think sleep to ourselves, repeating silently and in a quiet dreamy fashion such a formula as this:
"There is no reason why I should not sleep. My mind is at peace. Sleep is coming. I am getting sleepy. I am about to sleep. I am asleep."

Originality.

Strictly speaking, it is impossible,
of course, to be original. Originality consists in perceiving the permanent behind ephemeral, the old behind the new, in tracing the ever-living spring of human motive from its latest modern faucet deep down and back to its hidden source in consciousness and will.—Allen Duvall, in the Atlantic.

NEW JERSEY'S GOVERNOR INSULTED IN PUBLIC TOAST

At left, James R. Nugent; at right, Governor Woodrow Wilson.

SEAGERT, N.J.—No incident of recent New Jersey political warfare has excited so much comment as the toast alleged to have been given by the democratic chairman of the state committee, John R.
Nugent.

In his toast, he is alleged to have characterized the New Jersey governor and potential nominee for the presidency, Woodrow Wilson, an ingrate and a liar.

The toast was given in a restaurant at Avon before a large crowd.

introductory price of 25c. The majority pronounced it the best remedy they ever used for Rheumatism, Stomach Disorders, Constipation, Liver and Kidney Troubles and Blood Impurity. I will have it on sale yet as long as my present stock holds out. It is made from well known and tried roots and barks. I have never handled a remedy that had such a remarkable sale in so short a time. The remedy is prepared by the Old Indian Medicine Co., Battle Creek, Mich.
The company has ordered me to sell it from now on at the regular $1.00 price, and in comparison with many other remedies, it is cheap at that.

BOARD TESTIFIES AGAINST STATE

Wiley Investigation Brings Out How Funds Were Appropriated From Chemistry Bureau

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Testimony today before the house committee on expenditures in the department of agriculture in its investigation of charges against Dr.
Wiley, brought out the fact that funds were taken from the appropriation of the bureau of chemistry to pay expenses of two members of the Remsen board in giving testimony against the state of Indiana in its prosecution of manufacturers using benzoate of soda.

This statement was made to the committee by Dr. Ira Remsen, chairman of the board. The two members, he said, testified in the Indiana cause that benzoate of soda was not a harmful food ingredient.
Their testimony was given at the request of users of the preservative.

Dr. Remsen said he asked Secretary Wilson as to the propriety of giving testimony in this case and the secretary told him that as the accuracy of the Remsen board report on benzoate of soda was involved, it was the duty of the members to defend it.

Dr. Remsen expressed the opinion that someone was influencing the newspapers of the country against the board for the purpose of having it abolished. When the committee resumes its session tomorrow
it will question Solicitor George F.
McCabe of the agricultural department. McCabe is a member of the personnel board which recommended that Dr. Wiley be asked to resign "irregularly" in the employment of Dr. Rushby.

COUNTY BOARD DID NOT FORGET WORK

That the special meeting of the county board, which will be called sometime before the first of October, is not due to the carelessness of the members of the board in not deciding upon the amount of county appropriations for road improvement during the next year, as stated in one of the evening papers, was the statement made by District Attorney James Thompson today.

"The former special meeting was called for the sole purpose of having the new law in regard to state aid on public highways explained to the members of the board, to take action upon the erection of a tuberculosis sanatorium, and to urge the members of the county board to call a special meeting in their respective towns to decide on the amount each town wishes to appropriate for road improvement during 1912," said R.
Thompson.

"The law states that the county must appropriate an equal or larger amount for road improvement in each town than the town itself, and as the towns had made no appropriations at that time it was impossible for the board to fix any sum for road improvement."

REUNION OF OLD STATE REGIMENT

There will be a reunion of the Third Wisconsin Regiment of Volunteer Infantry of the Spanish-American war at Mauston, Wis., on August 16 and 17 under the auspices of the Fred R. Goodhouse Camp 31, U. S.
W. V. of Mauston and plans for a fitting celebration are being made.
All members of this regiment are invited and urged to be present as the program will include features of interest to all.

Among the various events planned for the reunion are parades, sham battles, guard mount, speeches, camp fires, and house parties, while in addition to these there will be two bands on hand to furnish the music and one battalion of infantry.

All wishing to attend should notify O. E. Kanard so that he can advise Mauston just how many to prepare for.

RESCUED MINER TO RETURN TO WORK

JOPLIN, Mo., Aug. 3.—Counting his three days' entombment in the White Oak zinc mine as a bath of immunity against further mine disasters, Joseph Clary will return to work probably tomorrow. Had physicians permitted, Clary would have entered the mine today.

He is resting at the home of his father but is eager to resume his inspection of the new mine, which he had just undertaken last Sunday when the prospect drift was shut by a cave-in. He is certain the cave-in and the digging of a new shaft for his rescue, which reopened the mine will result in a big find of zinc ore.
No ill effects are anticipated in Clary's case. His mother, too, is said to be gaining strength from her illness which had been made worse by her son's experience.

POLICE USE BOATS IN BANDIT CHASE

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., Aug. 3.—A score of detectives in fast motor launches are searching both sides of the Hudson river for the high powered, half enclosed motorboat, in which the thieves who robbed the Ardley postoffice Saturday, escaped, after a battle with the towns' people. They believe, if they can find it, and locate the robbers, they will be in a fair way to solve the mystery of the death of a young girl whose body was found in the river near here late yesterday.

ROOSEVELT HITS COURT DECISION

Says Country Will Not Tolerate Permanently
Such Line of Action

CALLS DECREE REACTIONARY

Declaring Workmen's Compensation Act Unconstitutional Causes the Criticism

LYONS, N. Y., Aug. 3.—"It is simply nonsense to suppose that this country will tolerate permanently a line of action such as the court of appeals in declaring unconstitutional the workmen's compensation act," is the statement of Colonel Roosevelt, made public here today. Other quotations follow:

"Four federal judges have written that they agree with me that the action of the New York court of appeals is so utterly reactionary as to be an invitation to revolution."

"My plea is that the court act with ordinary statesmanship; ordinary regard for the constitution as a living aid to growth, not as a straight jacket; and ordinary regard for the rights of humanity and the rights of civilization."

"No man who takes the opposite ground to that which I have taken in the article in question has any right on the bench, and it is a misfortune to have him there."

"Interpretation of the law must be made day to day and the interpretation of 100 years ago must not be held immutable."

"The republican party was formed to protest against the very view the court reactionaries now insist we should hold."

These are extracts from the correspondence between Colonel Roosevelt and Editor Charles H. Betts, regarding the colonel's criticism of the action of the New York state appeals followed in declaring unconstitutional the workmen's compensation act. Betts, who is the editor of the Lyons Republican, and a member of the state committee, took the colonel to task for his temerity to criticize the courts and received the above in reply.

FAMINE IN LONDON

20,000 DOCK WORKERS ON STRIKE; PRICES OF FOOD GO SOARING; GENERAL
CALL ISSUED

LONDON, Aug. 3.—With a serious situation developing in the strike of the dock workers, a sharp rise in meat and provisions today
came as a warning that food supplies are short and that famine
prices may soon prevail.

As a result of last night's call for a general strike of all classes of London dock workers and affiliated trades, about 8,000 more walked out early today, bringing the total number of strikers to 20,000. The leaders predict that 40,000 men will be out tomorrow. Ben Tillett, the strike leader, said today that the International Transport Workers' federation is in sympathy with the dock workers of London and may declare a general strike. This would result in an international tie-up of all shipping between America and European ports. Replying to criticisms that the strikers were threatening the people's food supplies, Tillett said: "I care as little for their food as they care for ours."

On the earnest representations of the shipping masters, the dock workers late today finally agreed to postpone the movement for a general strike of all workers until Sunday.
If the shipping masters fail to grant the demands by Saturday, the strike leaders declared that 100,000 men employed in all lines of transportation will be called out.

FREIGHT RATES IN STEEL PROBE

Topping Says Hill Roads and Steel Trust Have Monopoly on Minnesota Ore Traffic

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Continuing the investigation of the gobbling of the Tennessee Coal & Iron company by the Steel trust, the Stanley congressional investigating committee today questioned John A. Topping of the Republic Iron & Steel company, a member of the Tennessee Coal & Iron syndicate, regarding the deal. He declared when the syndicate was formed to get control of the T. C. & I. property, all of the members agreed that it would be an excellent investment. He insisted there was never any question of buying the stock as a speculation.

Topping corroborated other witnesses regarding the enormous value of the T. C. & I. holdings and said the T. C. & I. could produce pig iron at three dollars a ton less than any other concern in the world.

He was not in favor of the sale to the trust and he told Lewis Cas-leberry the advantage of the T. C. &
I. property simply because Grant
B. Schley told him his firm was in trouble and had to be helped out.

Taking up the Superior ore fields,
Topping said the Hill roads and the Steel trust lines had a monopoly of the traffic there and both charged an identical rate to handle ore.

"Our traffic manager and I believe the rates are too high," said Topping. In the Birmingham field
we can ship ore and coal up to 25 miles at 12 1/2 cents a ton. On the short hauls in the Minnesota fields
the price is 25 cents for 25 miles."

A similar condition obtained, he said, between the lake ports and Pittsburg. These rates, he said, are no being investigated by the interstate commerce commission.

Stanley brought out that the Steel corporation, while it nominally pays the same rate as the independents, in reality, through its ownership of both pays out of one pocket into the other.

TO ARREST UNCLE SAM SEINERS

Mississippi River, etc., as you have stated in your letter. Here is the permit:

"This will permit C. N. W. Brown of the fisheries station at Homer,
Minn., and his agents to rescue Black Bass and other fishes from the ponds and sloughs of the over-flooded lands adjacent to the Mississippi river in Wisconsin BETWEEN LA CROSSE AND NORTH TO TREMPEALEAU, using suitable nets for the purpose. All fish caught, except dog fish and eel pot, TO BE KEPT ALIVE AND TRANSFERRED TO THE MISSISSIPPI RIVER OR SOME OTHER INLAND WATERS."

"All ponds or sloughs from which the fish have been so rescued to be indicated by a stick with a white cloth attached stuck in some prominent part of the pond."

"Thus you will see what permission has been given to these people to take the small fish, and should you find they are leaving the fish to die or rot upon the ground that they do not care for, or in any way violating the provisions of this permit, arrest them at once and notify this department that you have done so."

"Yours very truly,
"JOHN A. SHOLTS."

In a telephone message to The Tribune today Head Warden Sholts verified his letter to Deputy Gausch.
"I have talked with Superintendent James Nevin, of the state fish commission," he said, "and he agrees with me that the proper step is to verify the reports and if true to proceed to make arrests."

The Charges

The charges made are:
(1) That the Curlew is taking bass minnows out of sloughs that are not landlocked.

(2) That the Curlew is leaving all but the bass minnows to die on the banks where caught.

In addition to this, as will be seen by reference to the order permitting the Curlew to operate, the bass caught are shipped into other states, whereas it is the plain purpose of the law that they shall be restored to the river or else to inland waters in Wisconsin. The last big bass order filed by the government at the expense of Wisconsin was in one of the Dakotas.

A Delegated Privilege

The authority of the United States Fish commission to do this "rescue" work is delegated. The state game laws provide:

"Note—Chapter 428, laws 1909, creates section 1498v and 1498w of the statutes. Section 1498v requires the commissioner of fisheries to remove small fish and minnows from land-locked sloughs, bays, lakes and bayous adjacent to the Mississippi river and distribute them in other waters of the state. Section 1498w provides that: 'All moneys received from licenses of all kinds for fishing on the Mississippi river, and Lakes Pepin and St. Croix shall be set apart and constitute a special fund, and shall be used exclusively for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act.'

"Note—Persons who fish with nets upon the Wisconsin side of the main channel of the Mississippi river are necessarily required to obtain a license to fish from the Wisconsin authorities, and to fish on the Minnesota side of the main channel must conform to the Minnesota laws."

"Opinion, Atty. General, Jan. 27, 1909."

The state commission seems to have left with Uncle Sam this "res-

HE WILL CALL ON PRES. TAFT

State and Navy Depart-

gram During Stay in United States

A message to the American people sent through the United Press by Admiral Count Togo:

ON BOARD THE STEAMSHIP
LUSITANIA, OFF NANTUCKET,
Aug. 3.—(Via Wireless, New York.)
I am looking forward with the greatest pleasure to my visit to your country, and I would like to express my gratitude to Mr. Taft and his cabinet for the very cordial invitation they have held out to me, and also to the American people for the very kind welcome of which I have been assured.

It has been one of my great wishes to visit the United States, and now that that wish is to be gratified,
I come in the spirit of a student and an anxious inquirer—eager to see all that your wonderful civilization has to show, and also to learn something of your marvelous progress in science, manufacture and commerce.

I have no idea as yet as to my program. All that is being arranged for me. I am just leaving it in the hands of the American people and I know that I shall be well looked after.

I have just experienced the time of my life in connection with the coronation of King George. Everywhere the hand of friendship has been held out to me. I am looking forward to an equally good time on my present visit.

My heart is filled with gratitude for the kindness of these responsible for this present invitation.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Racing down the Atlantic coast with a "bone in her teeth" and her big turbines whirling to capacity, the giant Lusitania is speeding against time to try to get her sharp nose posite the quarantine station by 10:30 tonight. If she does Japan's greatest hero, and one of the greatest naval officers in the world, will sleep tonight in a hotel in this metropolis.
If time wins, Admiral Togo will remain on board until morning.

The hero of the world's greatest naval battles comes here as the guest of the American nation and will be the recipient of such honors as are seldom accorded by a democracy to the representative of a monarchy. From the moment he lands until he crosses the border into Canada, the ranking admiral of the Japanese navy, nicknamed "The Nelson of Japan," will follow a program arranged for him by the state and navy departments of this government.

The Lusitania will be met off
quarantine by the revenue cutter
Seneca, on board of which will be Captain Templin M. Potts, chief of the office of naval intelligence;
Chandler Hale, third assistant secretary of state; Major General Fred
D. Grant and staff; Lieutenant A.
B. Cook of the navy, detailed as personal aide to the admiral during his stay here; Baron Uchida, Japanese ambassador to the United States, and Commander Hanahara, secretary of the Japanese embassy.

The admiral will leave for Washington in a special car over the Pennsylvania at 3:38 tomorrow afternoon and on Sunday will make ceremonious calls at the state and navy departments and on President Taft. In the evening he will dine with the president. He goes to Canada by way of Niagara Falls.

cuing," with the result that we are losing, not saving, our bass.

Scope is Broad

It will be observed from the ap-ended opinion of the attorney general that even in the open river, seining on the Wisconsin side of the channel must be under the authority of Wisconsin, and as to catch any considerable quantity of bass minnows in the channel would be impossible, the state seems in a position to stop the practice entirely.

The Curlew has, it is asserted and seems supported by fact, almost robbed of its bass the strip from Waba-sha to Genoa, recognized as the greatest bass fishing grounds in the world.

It may be further noted from the permit that all seining on the Wisconsin side, excepting between La Crosse and Trempealeau, is illegal, as only that territory is covered in the state permit.

Driven Out Below

Harry Starr, of the Mecca, declares that the Curlew was driven out of the south portion of the state several years ago for offenses such as are alleged to have been practiced here. At the time Robert M. La Follette, then governor, authorized the proceedings against the steamer.

SULPHUR CAUSES FIRE.

A small fire was caused at the home of H. G. Mills, 213 North Third street, at 10 o'clock this morning by the burning of sulphur, which was being used as a fumigator. A lace curtain which caught fire from the sulphur caused the fire to spread. Fire department No. 1 was called and extinguished the fire within a few minutes.

RELIGION ENTERS LORIMER PROBE

Bribe Taker Is Quizzed on Moral Principles Before Investigating Committee

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—An exploration of the religious record and moral principles of former Representative Charles A. White of the Illinois assembly was today conducted by Judge Haney before the Lorimer investigating committee. First, however, Judge Haney questioned White as to his income and learned that his pay had ranged for years from $3 a week to $65 a month.

"When did you become a labor lobbyist?" asked Haney.

"I was chosen to represent the Street Railway Men's association before the Illinois legislature in 1907," White said. "They paid me
$6 a day and expenses."

"Have you accepted the articles of faith of any church?" asked Haney.

"I believe in a hereafter and all those things, but I never joined any particular denomination," said White.

"Did you learn anything about faith, hope and charity?"

"I did those things right along."

"What do you think of what you are doing here?"

"I think it is charity to the people to inform them of corrupt conditions in the legislature, so the people can correct them."

"Did you write in your story any crimes of your own?"

"I committed no crimes."

"Do you consider bribery, perjury, malfeasance in office and immorality as crime?"

"A man's sins against himself do not affect the nation, but a man who does those things promotes influence tending to enslave the people and commits sin against the nation."

SIMON IS DEPOSED

RIVAL REVOLUTIONARY FAC-TIONS IN CENTRAL CAPITAL OF HAITI: PEACE PROS-PECTS POOR.

PORT AU PRINCE, Hayti, Aug.
3.—Without president or executive government, with two rival revolutionary factions in control of the capital and threatening to fight for supremacy, there seems little prospect today for peace in Hayti.

Since the forced retirement of President Simon more than two score persons have been killed and many wounded during street fighting. A committee of safety, organized by the diplomatic corps and having the moral support of the war ships in the harbor, is in nominal charge of the city.

General Cincinnatus Le Conte
and General Antenor Firmin are both candidates for the presidency.
Each has a large following of armed men. Neither of the leaders as yet has reached Port au Prince.

Attempts to loot were put down with a vigorous hand.

The German cruiser Bremen early today sent a detachment of marines ashore and occupied the German consulate and two German banking houses. The American cruiser Des Moines and the British warship Mel-borne also sent detachments ashore.

DES MOINES STRIKE IS NOT YET CALLED

DES MOINES, Iowa, Aug. 3.—
The Des Moines street car men continued to work today, though it was admitted a strike might come at any hour during the day. One hundred more strike-breakers arrived today from Chicago and joined 300 others, ready to take out cars if a strike is ordered. City officials have suggested that the street car men take the case into courts and attempt to force the company to arbitrate the case of Hiatt, discharged for insubordination, as required by the agreement between the company and its men.

EAU CLAIRE, Aug. 3.—The Eau Claire Champs made it four straight from the La Crosse Outcasts by taking a double-header yesterday afternoon. The first game went ten innings and ended in a score of 3 to 4, but the second game, which went 7 innings, turned into a slug-fest match for Eau Claire and when the game was called to allow the visitors to make connections the Champs had the long end of the six to one score.

Watson did the twirling stunt for the Bondies in the first exhibition, and although he allowed thirteen hits he kept them scattered. In the seventh inning the Outcasts tied the score, and a muff of a pop-up bunt by Watson gave the Eau Claire club the game in the tenth round.

Brenton was selected as the chief attraction of the second contest by Manager Bond. Brenton allowed nine hits, but they were well bunched, giving Eau Claire plenty of scores. The Champs scored in the first round, but the Bondies tied the score in the third. Schoonhoven's aggregation then got busy and registered in the fourth and fifth and brought the game to a climax by running in three tallies in the sixth.

FLAT-FOOTED Jimmie Patricius Archer poled out a home run in the tenth and thereby ended the greatest pitchers' battles of the year, 1 to 0. Cole allowed two scratch hits and Napoleon Rucker only four.

Whatever is the matter with the "Peerless" Christy Mathewson? National league batters are landing on him at will. The Pirates got fifteen hits, but perfect support saved the Giants, who broke the Pirate's winning streak.

BULLETIN: It's even worth a flash: Boston has won a game. Those Pacific islanders who get the scores by telegraph every day won't believe the news is true. Who can blame them?

Mique Donlin, an eminent Bregumation, declares he's rather play ball for the tail-enders than warm a bench for the league leaders. His wish is granted without appeal to the board of directors.

Speaking of the board of directors: See if Lynch doesn't grant Magee a reinstatement pretty soon. He was upheld by the board, but it is probable arrangements were made to soften his heart.

The Ty-Cobbers dropped two to the Speed Boys while the Athletics picked up one from the top of the league ladder.

There were three men on bases and none out. Ty Cobb struck out. Sam Crawford struck out. DeLahanty fled out. And that's heavy some.

The Senators seem to have picked up a pitching star in young Becker, who held the White Sox to three scratch hits.

"Flame" Delhi of the Los Angeles team, bought by the White Sox, broke a world's record in Los Angeles by pitching only seventy-five balls in a full nine innings. The former record was 103 pitched balls.

GLIDDEN TOUR
WILL TAKE PLACE

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—The failure of the proposed "reciprocity tour" to Canada has brought forth the announcement by the American Automobile association that a tour to be known as the Glidden will be held in October. The route will be from New York to Jacksonville, Fla., via the national highway, passing through Atlanta.

JEFF TO ALASKA.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 3.—James Jeffries and his brother Jack have engaged passage for Alaska next Monday. They will hunt big game in the southeastern and southwestern portion of the territory until they are driven out by deep snows. On the return journey, by way of Kodiak island, they will hunt moose on the Kenat peninsula.

NO. 67
F. DE HASS ROBISON

The Man Who Made the Stars Shine

Frank deHass Robison was wise in the selection of players and relatives. When he picked Stanley Robison, he picked a brother after his own sort, and when he picked Criger O'Connor and Zimmer to be his catchers; Cuppy, Frasier, Powell, Wilson and Young for pitchers; and some more of said sort to make up the rest—such as Tebeau, Childs, Wallace, McKee, Blake, Burkett, Helderick and McAlced—gentlemen, you must admit Frank de Hass Robison was considerable chooser.

For ten years the Cleveland National league team had no other president than Frank Robison. And then for two seasons Cleveland had as president, Stanley Robison, and after then, Cleveland fell out of favor. Whatever it was for twelve years it was because Frank Robison had started things on their prosperous way and he and his brother had kept them going in the right direction.

Frank, who, is not now among those who walk on the earth, was the most ardent young baseball enthusiast in all Ohio—with just one exception, this being Brother Stanley. As youngsters, they were impressed with the work of the Forest City club, and when they arrived at years of action, they annexed the Cleveland team, put in the marvelous lot of players above named, and gave battle for a decade or more in all that time doing their successful best to make their stars shine with a brilliancy greater than that displayed by any other constellations.

Pretty soon, the Baseball Family Robison was getting itself talked about, and in course of time it fell out that Frank de Hass and his merry men crossed bats against the Baltimore crew, and you surely remember what a tough aggregation was THAT one. The first time they came to a clash in the Temple cup series—and the Temple cup in those days was about like getting yourself elected United States senator now, or president or something well, then, in that first argument, the Robisons won the first game, 3 to 4. The second game wasn't as close, Cleveland beating Baltimore 7 to 2. Nor was the third game a scratch, as the score, 7 to 1 in favor of Cleveland, shows. The fourth game, Robison told his boys to have a little pity, and Ned Hanlon and the rest of the Marylanders rejoiced in their (only) victory. For the fifth game went the way of the first three, and the score was 5 to 2.

After a while, Frank Robison looked upon St. Louis and it pleased him, so he took his license and his legion to that fair city where for eight years he ruled as president, and where many notable things were accomplished for the furtherance of good sport. And now that Frank has had the Great Game called on account of darkness, his policies remain as he planned them, faithfully carried out by the brother who for a lifetime was the companion of his ambitions and his constant fellow traveler along the road to Better Baseball.
